

NATIVITY

The camels still are coming
From the East across the sand;
The sheep are watching angels
As they hover o'er the land;
The cattle are still lowing –
By a lowly manger bed.
But I cannot see the wise men
Moving with the Star that led
Nor the shepherds on the hillside
Rising with the angel's song.
It's a scene devoid of humans –
Surely something's very wrong!
Nature still responds to Jesus –
I'm beginning to suspect
That animals refuse to be
Politically correct!
